Just a quick post to keep you up to date with improvements to the PIPS 2.0 site.

Firstly and probably most noticeably are the two banners which you can see in the header and right sidebar. The banners have been inserted using the built in banner function, something I have been meaning to incorporate for some time.

Some of the features of the banner function...

The New PIPS 2.0

Welcome to the new PIPS 2.0 site! If you had seen the previous design then you will notice quite a few changes.

A big change is the removal of a lot of content and affiliate links from the outdated mega site. I have included an overview of each of the programmes incorporated in PIPS and all links lead to the PIPS sales page rather than to the individual programmes.

I have switched to MyBlog which is a Joomla component rather than using Wordpress however Wordpress is still an option.
